SOVIET CITIZENS' CLUB

185958

2. The Soviet Citizens' Club in Mukden houses a restaurant, a library, and the Soviet School. It is the meeting place for the Soviet Youth Circle and Soviet Women's Club. Recent Soviet films and certain carefully screened American films are shown at the Club when available. There is also a Theater Group which presents plays from time to time, principally on Soviet holidays, on the excellent stage in the main hall of the Club. The Soviet School recently moved from its building into the Club.
3. The Council of the Club is composed of twelve members. Its function is to supervise and control activities at the Club and to implement policies of the Council which are dictated by the Executive Committee of the SCA. Each Council member has two or three days of duty per month, when he is responsible for the direction of the Club.

The (paid) manager of the Club is Konstantin Skorniyakov; the librarian is Leibova (first name unknown) and the movie operator is Boris Sergeyev.

Following is a list of Council members:

Sergeyevski, Yevgeni	Vansovich, L. N.
Toporkov, L. R.	Genzel, V. G.
Shakhov, Uri	Karpov, A. V.
Tulin, A. K.	Kononov, Y. Y.
Goncharuk, I. Y.	Malaka, E. V.
Leonaki, A. G.	Peretyatko, M. E.

SOVIET YOUTH CIRCLE (Kruzhok Sovetskoi Molodezhi)

4. The Youth Circle is not very active at the present time because of the repatriation of many members and the restrictions imposed by the curfew. Previously the Youth Circle met every Wednesday at the Soviet Club for political instruction, but no longer does so. The political instructor was Boris Krestovskiy, who lectured on such subjects as:
The History of the VKP (b) (Vsesoyuznaya Kommunisticheskaya Partiya/Bolshevikov/
All Union Party/Bolshevik/)

The Life of Stalin
The Constitution of the USSR

Late in 1947 examinations were given members of the Youth Circle. Only five members passed the examinations on the subjects listed above.

In November 1947 the Committee of the SCA decided that the members of the Youth Circle should be taught the fundamentals of political agitation. When Seryogin of the USSR Consulate in Peiping was last in Mukden he promised to send an instructor for this course, but so far no one has arrived.

5. On 15 February a special meeting of the Soviet Youth Circle was called at the Soviet Club. Among those attending the meeting were members of the Executive Committee of the Circle, Circle members, and a number of representative of the SCA. This meeting was called as a result of a discussion held by Almazov, Kostenetaki, and Kiryakov, who decided that the Circle needed reorganization. Vladimir Kazansky (son of L. V.), Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Circle spoke first and pointed out that the Circle had failed in accomplishing many of its aims. The financial statement was then read by Nikolai Taiturov, the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Circle. After a reprimand by L. V. Kazansky, a secret ballot was taken and a new Executive Committee was elected as follows:
